The Federal Ministry is assisted by the following officers:

The Army Inspector;
The Chaplain-General;
The Director of the Army Medical Service;
The Chief of Military Intendance;
The Chief of the Army Construction Department.

The Army Inspector, who has the rank of general, assists the Federal Ministry of War, and in his relations with it is under the immediate orders of the Minister.

He is responsible for securing uniformity in the entire training of the troops, especially their military training, for the discipline and moral of the troops and their internal administration, and for the instruction, training and selection of the senior officers in every rank.

Attached to the Ministry of War is a Permanent Parliamentary Commission for the Army, which has supervisory powers over military administration but has no administrative powers.

It consists of three members elected by the National Council, one from each of the three largest parties.

On the same basis a substitute is appointed for each member of the Permanent Parliamentary Commission. Only members of the National Council and the Federal Council are eligible for membership of the Commission.
Military Administrative Bureaux.

Each Province has a Military Administrative Bureau under the direct authority of the Federal War Minister.

Each Bureau is directed by an officer appointed with the approval of the Provincial Government.

The Head of the Bureau is assisted by an Advisory Commission of three members elected by the Provincial Diet.

The special duties of the Military Administrative Bureau are as follows:

(a) To provide for the material welfare of the troops stationed in the Province;
(b) To supervise the military establishments situated in the Province;
(c) To advise commanding officers on questions of training;
(d) To direct and conduct recruiting;
(e) To maintain regular relations with the provincial administrative departments.

The personnel of the army consists of officers, non-commissioned officers, and men. The cadres of N.C.O.s are filled by the promotion of specially trained men; the cadres of officers are filled by the promotion of specially trained N.C.O.s. Officers are engaged for service with the colours; N.C.O.s and men for service both with the colours and in the reserve.

The regular term of engagement for officers is not less than 20 years with the colours; for N.C.O.s and men it is not less than 12 years, of which at least six must be spent with the colours and the remainder in the reserve. The period served by an officer in the ranks is counted towards his term of service.

On the expiry of the regular period of service with the colours, officers may, on voluntary re-engagement, be retained with the colours for a further period of 15 years, and N.C.O.s and men for a further period of not more than three years.

Transfer to the Reserve.

On the expiry of their term of service with the colours, N.C.O.s and men are transferred to the reserve — generally on March 31st or September 30th. Certificates of transfer are issued to reservists.

Calling-up of the Reserve.

The reserve can only be called up in exceptional emergencies.

The power to call up the reserve and send it on indefinite furlough is vested in the National Assembly. The Central Government cannot call up the reserve except in case of serious danger and must at once convene the National Assembly and request its approval for this measure.

F. THE MILITARY COLLEGE

The Military College consists of:

(a) The Staff of the Military College (comprising: Infantry, Artillery, Pioneers and Telegraph Schools) and the Officers' Training Course, both of which are temporarily established at Enns (Upper Austria).

(b) The Physical Training Course at Wiener Neustadt.

(c) The Riding and Driving School at Schlosshof, near Marchegg.

II.

Budget Expenditure on National Defence.

A. NOTES ON BUDGET PROCEDURE.

(1) The financial year coincides with the calendar year. The budget estimates for 1929 were submitted to Parliament in October 1928 and were finally adopted and promulgated by the Law of January 29th, 1929. Closed accounts for the year 1926 were available in May 1927, for 1927 in June 1928 and for 1928 in July 1929.

(2) The budget is divided into four main parts:
   (a) The State administration (Hoheitsverwaltung);
   (b) Monopolies;
   (c) Federal undertakings;
   (d) Railways.

All defence expenditure is charged to the State administration budget.

(3) Receipts collected by the Army organisation in the course of its activities are not appropriated in aid but shown on the revenue side of the budget.

(4) Local authorities do not contribute to the cost of the military organisation.

Notes. — (1) The State maintains some establishments for the production of military material. These are included in the item, Military establishments.

(2) There is no military air force. In the budget of the Department of Trade and Transport, 1,980,700 schillings were appropriated to civil aviation for 1928 and 2,753,000 schillings have been estimated on that account for 1929.

III. Receipts in connection with the Army.

The receipts of the Army organisation amounted to 949,881 schillings in 1926, 2,012,272 schillings in 1927 and 2,196,076 schillings in 1928. They have been estimated at 2,938,000 schillings in the budget for 1929. These receipts consist of the proceeds of sale of various products and disused material, the rent of houses and other immovable property, and some fees (swimming baths and museum).

IV. Expenditure referring to Previous Years.

Military pensions are not charged to the Army budget, but jointly with civil pensions to a special section of the general budget, the amount of military pensions not being shown separately.

The closed accounts of the Department for Social Welfare showed 61.7 million schillings for 1926, 66.7 million for 1927, and 68.5 million for 1928, appropriated to war disablement, the corresponding estimate for 1929 being 69.5 million schillings.
